

Curriculum vitae

Personal Information

FIRST NAME / SURNAME	Thomas Edward Woodcock
ADDRESS	Fairlea, Salisbury Rd, Broughton, Stockbridge, SO20
TEL	44 1794 301883
EMAIL	tom.woodcock@me.com
NATIONALITY	British
DATE OF BIRTH	03/03/1955
GENDER	Male
GENERAL MEDICAL COUNCIL	2425254 without license to practice
CURRENTLY	Clinical physiologist (no longer licensed to practice) and ethicist. Expert Ethics Member, NHS Research Authority. Member, Clinical Ethics Group, UH Southampton. Committee Member, British Standards Institute. Faculty Member F1000 Critical Care and Emergency Medicine. (FM of the year CC&EM 2015 & 2016). External Faculty Law and Ethics, University of Southampton. Medical Advisor to a Technology start-up.
DATES
POSITION	Sept 1987-March 2015
RESPONSIBILITIES	Consultant in Intensive Care Medicine Intensive care for adults Intensive care for children
EMPLOYER / ADDRESS	Perioperative care
TYPE OF BUSINESS	University Hospital Southampton, UK Health

Curriculum vitae

Education and Training

DATES 1984-7

POSITION Senior Registrar, Bristol & Exeter

PRINCIPAL STUDIES Anaesthesia & Intensive Care

INSTITUTION South West Regional Health Authority

DATES 1985-6

POSITION Clinical Fellow

PRINCIPAL STUDIES Clinical and academic research

INSTITUTION University of Western Ontario, London, Ont.

DATES 1973-78

QUALIFICATION AWARDED MB.BS (London)

PRINCIPAL STUDIES Medicine

INSTITUTION London University

DATES 1999-2002

QUALIFICATION AWARDED M.Phil

PRINCIPAL STUDIES Medical law

INSTITUTION Glasgow University

Skills and Competences

LANGUAGE SPOKEN English

SOCIAL SKILLS AND Conference Chairman

COMPETENCES Meeting Host

ORGANIZATIONAL SKILLS AND Chairman of Institutional and National Committees

COMPETENCES Working Party Contributor European Society ICM

Working Party Contributor AAGBI

Seminar/ conference organiser

COMPUTER SKILLS AND Word processing

COMPETENCES Communications

Web Publishing

PUBLICATIONS <https://scholar.google.co.uk/citations?user=yEYIdgIAAAAJ&hl=en>

- * The first Consultant to be appointed to ICM in Southampton.
- * Innovator in Education, creating UK's first Higher Professional Training program in ICM and creating Southampton Simulator Training course at Bristol Simulation Centre.
- * Innovator in Clinical Practice, for example continuous haemofiltration and extracorporeal gas exchange technologies.
- * Research Ethics expert.
- * Founder of the Clinical Ethics Group at Southampton University Hospitals.
- * Masters Degree in Medical Law M.Phil (Glasg) 2002.
- * Course Leader NHS Education (South) Masterclass on Consent.
- * Lecturer and Advisory Appointments representative to the Royal College of Anaesthetists.
- * Invited to advise and lecture Australians Donate (Organ Transplantation) initiative Sydney, 2004.
- * Invited to advise and lecture Italian Transplant Organisation, Verona 2005.
- * UK National Clinical Excellence Award Holder (2005-15).
- * Elected Council Member the Association of Anaesthetists of Great Britain and Ireland 2011-2015.
- * Originator of the Revised Starling equation and Glycocalyx Model Paradigm for rational fluid therapy. (BJA 2012). Presented at the Royal Society of Medicine, The Physiology Society (London) and at many Educational events.
- * Served on several AAGBI Working Parties, Chaired International Relations Committee and Safety Committee. Safe Anaesthesia Liaison Group Member at Royal College of Anaesthetists.
- * Originator of the National Essential Anaesthetic Drug List (NEADL).
- * AAGBI Foundation Award for contribution to Patient Safety 2016.
- * Recent Textbook Chapter; Restricted or liberal fluid therapy. In: Perioperative Fluid Management. Springer International Publishing 2016.
- * Recent Textbook Chapter; Ethics. In: Handbook of Intensive Care Organisation and Management. Imperial College Press 2016